

Training course form

VACANT & STUDENT HOUSING IT'S THAT EASY

Introduction

Managing a commercial building can be a daunting task, and life's uncertainties don't make it easier. Each situation is different and our training course aims to make you able to best assist your clients in their commercial building insurance choice.

Training course goals

- › Overview of the vacant housing market: size and opportunities
- › Tackling the strategic stakes of the student housing market
- › What to look for when dealing with vacant building or Student housing risk.
- › APRIL's underwriting position: questions to ask, terms & conditions, premiums and special circumstances
- › Walk through of on-line and phone quote methods

Concerned target

- › Broker
- › Underwriter and assistant
- › Any other concerned parties wishing to acquire further knowledge of vacant & student housing risks

Training course package

- › 1 hour session
- › Certification = 1 RIBO
- › Free lunch provided

About Kent Pitkin

Kent is our Commercial line Director in Toronto and has a long experience in underwriting. He will provide a quality training as he understands the subject but also what you are looking for, by following this training.

Questions and In-Depth Look

Want to go further? To discover our other APRIL training courses, go on www.april.ca